

NH SRCC CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL
HAJI ALI, MUMBAI, MAHARASHTRA

Department of Paediatric Orthopaedics

Fellowship Course in Paediatric Orthopaedics

Details: 1-year Clinical Fellowship

Accredited By Paediatric Orthopaedic Society India

Start and end dates – 1st March to 1 April each year.

Applications to be sent in January each year by mail addressed to

Eligibility - MS Orth, DNB Orth

How to apply : send application and CV dravi.paedortho@gmail.com/mandarortho@gmail.com/taralnagda@gmail.com)

Faculty names –

- Dr Taral Nagda
- Dr Mandar Agashe
- Dr Chasanal Rathod
- Dr Avi Shah
- Dr Jaideep Dhamele
- Dr Miten Sheth : Paediatric Sports
- Dr Bipin Ghangurde : Paediatric hand

Clinical exposure :

The caseload of over 2000 outpatients per year. Annually this department performs over 1000 major / supra-major and minor procedures. Supervised as well as independent hands-on training in all aspects of paediatric orthopaedics: all types of congenital deformities, bone and joint infections and sequelae, metabolic disorders, trauma: fresh and neglected, neuromuscular disorders like CP, spina bifida, Arthrogyrosis and brachial plexus, spine problems, developmental disorders, paediatric hand disorders, paediatric neurosurgical problems, reconstructions, deformity corrections, limb lengthening, musculoskeletal tumours and paediatric rheumatology referral service. Dedicated clubfoot clinic, speciality OPDs viz. Hip preservation/paediatric sports

Academic activities - CME courses, paper presentations, journal club, medical camps

Accommodation provided – not provided

Stipend : Basic salary as per registrar grade